Dear Absolutely Fabulous Fireworks,

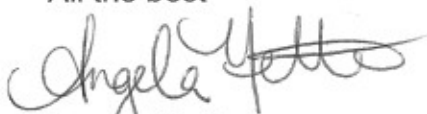

Many thanks once again for delivering what can only be described as an "Absolutely Fabulous" firework display. After the display, many guests approached me for the costing of the firework display and all their estimates were grossly inflated, with one gentleman's guess ten-fold of the actual cost !

Over the past 3 years, the addition of a firework displays on our rooftop garden has proved to be a great success with our clients, and has offered an exciting addition to our events. At the Coq d'Argent, we always expect and demand high standards from our suppliers and anything less for and on behalf of our clients is not acceptable. Based in the City of London, next to the Bank of England and the Lord Mayor's Mansion, safety and cleanliness is paramount and I am pleased to say you are beyond any reproach on both aspects.

All-in-all your company not only surpasses our expectations on the display side but also the whole delivery, we have minimum fuss and you always get the job done regardless of the difficulties with the space and the firing site. As for the clear- up afterwards it never ceases to amaze us, no-one would have ever had guessed a major firework display had taken place a few hours earlier on our property.

We thank you again and look forward to next month's booking.

All the best
